Dear Community Members,

Did you ever get that feeling that, even though you're sure everything's been taken care of, something still nags at you? Well, it came to me last Monday morning when Fr. Orłowski said to me, "you know, we made a mistake with the Monday morning Mass; it's a national holiday and we're supposed to have Mass at 9AM, right?" And this was just as I was leaving the rectory to go and say the 7:15AM Mass – as scheduled in the bulletin. Needless to say, I felt like banging my head against the wall. Turns out, even Fr. Orłowski didn't really remember. A friendly, inquiring phone call came in Sunday night. Anyway, yes, we will continue to have 9AM Masses on public holidays, and regard last Monday's mistake as history.

What a wonderful day we had on Corpus Christi Sunday! Hearty and holy congratulations to our seven new communicants. Our thanks to our wonderful Knights of Columbus. The Mass was truly beautiful and, of course, the brunch was typically fabulous. Doesn't get much better than that, does it? Of course, the heat and general exhaustion did me in and I ended up going to bed at 8PM. I'm glad I did. Though I can't say I bounded out of bed Monday morning, rising was much easier than I had anticipated.

Well, we have two more major liturgical events this summer: 1. Father Brodsky's first Solemn Mass on 12 June – with reception, of course; 2. Our patronal feast on 24 June, planned "chez Cavin." Then, we can just lull through the rest of the summer. Or can we? Perhaps God will provide something momentous for us.

This bulletin appears rather late on our website, so late, that probably most of you will see it in print for the first time Sunday morning. These things happen every now and then. Even administrative assistants have to take a bit of a vacation, right?

So, today, we have another external solemnity, that of The Sacred Heart of Jesus. The actual feast was last Friday, of course, but, to keep extra Sung Masses to a reasonable level, considering that so many travel so far to either sing or serve, we're doing more external solemnities than we had in the past. We have one more for The Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul for Sunday, 3 July.

I hope you started our Novena to St. Joseph. We wanted to start 1 June, remember? Even though June is the month of the Sacred Heart, it's still a wonderful time for a novena to His foster father. Our intention is so very important. It's high time that we stand on our own two feet – in our own home. May God be merciful and gracious and grant this intention through St. Joseph's intercession, my children and my friends.
