Dear Community Members,

Before I forget – sometimes these bulletin letters take on a life of their own – I have three important pieces of news for you, reminders, actually:

The first is that Father Berg will be joining us Sunday, 27 November. Unlike the last “false alarm” when Father Saguto couldn’t stay to speak to us, Father Berg will absolutely be here for Sunday Mass. He wishes to speak to all of us together, so, THERE WILL BE NO 7AM MASS SUNDAY, 27 NOVEMBER. The meeting will be held immediately following the 11:30 Mass in the church. The Blessed Sacrament will be removed so we can all “settle in” for the meeting.

The second is that the FSSP is promoting the Catholica Summer Program to form young men into confident, Catholic gentlemen. Catholica Summer Program is a month-long immersion experience in Rome, Italy for young men aged 13 – 17. This unique program will give young men the opportunity to grow in his vocation. Each day will begin each day with Latin Mass in the Extraordinary Form celebrated in St. Peter’s Basilica, followed by classes in Church History, Latin and Apologetics. Then, on to explore Rome, walking through the history of the Faith from its founding to the present day. All of this and much, much more will challenge the young man’s imagination and properly direct his ambitions. For more info, visit www.catholicasummerprogram.com or email Joseph Long at catholica2017@prorometours.com. With this bulletin letter, you’ll have all the information you’ll need to check things out.

Thirdly, many, if not most, of you knew that, early in Lent, I went to Chicago to solo in a recording of The Mozart Requiem with the Society of St. John Cantius. The CD is finally out and available at birettabooks.com. As soon as you enter www.birettabooks.com in your browser, the image of the CD, along with other things, should be displayed right away under the heading “Featured Items.” It’s truly a wonderful performance and, incidentally, this is the Mass setting sung for All Souls at St. John Cantius.

To close, I’d like to say I hope you all got out to vote. Father and I voted early, actually, 11/4. Well if did or you didn’t, we now know the results of this election. We knew that the one was flawed. But we also knew, with absolute certainty that the other was evil. Flawed won. Even so, as Bette Davis said in All About Eve, “fasten your seatbelts; it’s going to be a bumpy night.” Still, I’m relieved.

Hmm, I wonder if, now, all the liberals who said they were going to move to Canada or Australia actually will. If they really wanted to put their money where their character-assassinating, liberal mouth is, they SHOULD move to Mexico. But, I don’t see that happening, do you, my children and my friends?
