Liturgical Note

What are the Ember Days we observe this week? Ember days (corruption from Latin Quatuor Tempora, four times) are the days at the beginning of the seasons ordered by the Church as days of fast and abstinence. They were definitely arranged and prescribed for the entire Church by Pope Gregory VII (1073-1085) for the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after 13 December (S. Lucia), after Ash Wednesday, after Whitsunday, and after 14 September (Exaltation of the Cross). The purpose of their introduction, besides the general one intended by all prayer and fasting, was to thank God for the gifts of nature, to teach men to make use of them in moderation, and to assist the needy. The Church, when converting heathen nations, has always tried to sanctify any practices which could be utilized for a good purpose; the Ember Days take up and ennoble the agricultural feasts of the Romans, in December for seeding, in June for the harvest, and in September for a rich vintage. Pope Gelasius (492-496) began the practice of permitting Holy Orders to be conferred on Ember Saturdays.
